

Early Age Career & Workforce Readiness

---

NAME: _____

DATE: _____

Career Awareness and Preparation

- I can list my interests and hobbies.
  - I can name things that I don't like to do.
  - I can name a friend's interests and hobbies.
  - I can name the things that my parents or family members do during their week.
  - I can name five (5) different jobs in my community.
  - I have watched three (3) people in my school or community, and I can describe what they do in their jobs.
  - I can name three (3) workers and tell you how they learned what they do on their jobs.
  - I can explain how important school is for my future career.
-

Career Acquisition

- I have spoken in front of a small group of my friends in class.
- I have listened to others speak, and I can listen for important facts.
- I know that the Internet, newspapers and magazines are good places to look to learn about jobs.
- I have written a letter to a friend or relative.
- I have made a plan of activities that I want to do over the summer and next school year.
- I have worked on a team in class with my friends.
- I can use a computer to send messages to family and friends, to key and print a report for school, and to visit a website.
- I know how many times I have been absent from school this year.

Career Retention and Advancement

- I have talked to an adult about good work habits for success in school and at a job.
  - I can name three (3) habits that I have that will make me successful in school.
  - I can name one or more habits that I must change to be successful at school
  - I can give examples of how I complimented and encouraged a friend.
  - I can name types of money and three (3) ways that money is used.
  - I can plan a weekly schedule for home and school.
  - I can tell you how my parents’/guardians’ role at home is different from their role at work.
  - I have talked to adults about what they learn at their jobs and how it helps them to do a good job.
-

Entrepreneurship

- I have met a business owner and I know what he/she does.
  - I can describe work habits that help a business owner to be successful (flexibility, positive attitude, risk-taker, leader, etc.).
  - I have set up my own business activity to earn real or fake money (i.e. lemonade stand, pet care, crafts, etc.).
-
